Lab Test Results Protocol

After your provider reviews the results of your lab tests, she will share your labs with you through our patient portal. You can access your information under the labs section of the patient portal. You will also receive the provider's interpretation in writing via email.

Lab Cost Information

Please note that typically labs are covered by insurance, however it is your responsibility to verify coverage and/or deductible costs you will incur.

I _____ hereby acknowledge that I understand that Greenhouse Naturopathic Medicine is not responsible for the costs I incur as a result of testing.
